Roos reclaim Parker County rivalry after 28-27 OT win over Aledo

Written by Derik Moore

Saturday, 12 September 2009

Weatherford junior Corey Matlock (56), sophomore Buddy Honea (92), and senior Godwin Chipelesa take down Aledo sophomore quarterback Matthew Bishop during the Roos' 28-27 overtime win Friday at the newly-renovated Roo Stadium. Both teams, coaches, and fans not only withstood early lightning delays, but also saw a game that will go down in Parker County history. WISD Community Education offers new online hunter safety course

Written by Carla Stone

Friday, 11 September 2009

WISD Community Ed is now offering an exciting online Hunter Safety Course. This course is primarily for the adult hunter who has been shooting and hunting for a number of years, but may also be taken by those new to the sport. Take advantage of this convenient online class, complete the online homework assignments, print them out, and bring them to the one-day field course on Saturday, September 26, to obtain your Hunter Safety License. All online study options require you to complete a one-day field course to complete your certification. Register for the $19 course through the Community Ed Office located at 602 W. Water Street, or call 817-598-2806. You may also register online at <http://comed.weatherfordisd.com>.
