Roos beat Aledo in stormy stadium premier

Thanks to a blocked extra-point kick by Weatherford defensive back Joe Ward after Aledo scored a touchdown in the first overtime Friday at Roos Stadium, the Kangaroos had a chance to put the game away after answering with a touchdown of their own. Senior quarterback Mitchael Rucker sneaked into the end zone from a yard out, and WHS kicker Josh Blanton, as he had done three times previous in the game, successfully booted a PAT through the uprights to secure the 28-27 win for Weatherford.

The game was sent into overtime when Aledo's Devin Davis scored on a 1-yard plunge and Bearcats kicker Andrew Kocurek added the point to knot the score at 21 with just over two minutes remaining in the final quarter.
